

22 June 2015

Multiple Histology Samples on One Patient

Anatomic Pathology Service (APS) only needs one request form when multiple histology samples are taken from a patient in the same procedure.

The same request number is assigned to the request form and the samples so that one pathologist reports on all the samples.

When sending multiple samples on one patient, please clearly list the specific sites on the request form and ensure the specific site is written on the appropriate container label.

Thank you